MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST SECURED BY SUN REPORTERS.

What Has Happened and What Is Going to Happen—Personal and Social Items of the City.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

Justice J. A. Roberts of Rochelle was among those who spent yesterday in this city.

Miss Thomas, a charming young lady of Windsor, was shopping in the city yesterday.

J. S. Crown, the trucker of Rocky Point, was among those who spent yesterday in this city.

J. L. Stevens, W. F. Birt and N. P. Cauthen formed a jolly trio of Waldo folks who visited Gainesville Wednesday.

W. H. Traxler was in the city yesterday. He came for the purpose of making arrangements to place his sons in the University of Florida.

J. W. Upthegrove of Island Grove, who is engaged in the fish business at that place, was among those who spent yesterday in this city on business.

After a session lasting two days, the Board of County Commissioners adjourned Wednesday afternoon, after transacting a great deal of important business.

John Ambrose, the clever and accommodating prescription clerk in the drug store of J. W. McCollum & Co., has returned from a brief visit to his mother in Waldo.

Marvin Hulme of Hawthorn, the clever traveling representative of the VanDeman-Lewis Company, wholesale grocers, Jacksonville, was working the trade in this city yesterday.

The family of Marvin D. Phifer, who have resided for more than a year at 304 West Court street, have removed to the cottage on East Union street belonging to Benson & Son.

J. D. Stringfellow left Wednesday for New York, where he will spend the next two or three weeks recuperating. Mrs. Stringfellow has been visiting in the North for several weeks.

Mrs. B. B. Hopson of High Springs, after a pleasant visit to relatives in this city, returned to her home Wednesday. Mrs. Hopson formerly resided here and her friends are always pleased to see her.

Calvin Brown of Newberry was in the city yesterday on business connected with the office of County Tax Assessor Colson. Mr. Brown has recently removed from Otter Creek, and will make Newberry his future home.

E. L. Flowers, a well-known citizen of Wilford, was among the business visitors to Gainesville yesterday. Mr. Flowers called at The Sun office and had his subscription changed from the semi-weekly to the daily edition.

Mrs. H. C. Atwater of Waldo favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday. It is stated that Mrs. Atwater has been appointed postmistress to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of her husband, and it was matters connected with the approval of her bond brought her here.

Friends of W. W. Colson and family, who have been residing for the past few months on their country place near Newnan's lake, will be glad to learn that they are removing to the city, and will be pleasantly located at their residence, 109 S. Palmetto avenue, East Gainesville.

J. A. J. Strickland, former justice of the peace of the Hague district, but who is now content with making a good living for himself and family on the farm, was trading in the city yesterday. When it comes to farming, Mr. Strickland is one of the most successful in the county.

county's well-known and efficient teachers who came here to attend the examination, was called home to Alachua Wednesday by telegram, on account of illness of some member of her family. It is hoped she found the condition of the patient improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Hill are at home again, after an absence from the city of several weeks, and friends are glad to welcome them. Mr. Hill, who is the efficient civil engineer of the Cummer Lumber Company, has been in South Florida, while his wife spent the greater part of the time in Lawtey.

Earle Kelley, one of the faithful and efficient employes in the mechanical department of The Sun, left yesterday for his annual vacation, during which he will visit several points of interest, principally Jacksonville, Atlanta and Daytona Beach. Upon his return, Earle will enter school, and this paper regrets to lose his services, as well as his companionship.

Mrs. Jas. R. Gilbert, after a few days spent here as a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Manning, left Wednesday for St. Petersburg, where she will join her husband and make her future home. Mrs. Gilbert was only recently married. She is a young lady of most affable and entertaining disposition, which is inherited, and her numerous young friends will miss her. Mr. Gilbert is a baker, and holds a lucrative position in St. Petersburg.

Captain A. R. Elmore has returned from a few days pleasantly spent with his daughter, Mrs. James C. Halle, on the magnificent plantation about nine miles west of the city, and declares he feels one hundred per cent better. Captain Elmore expects to go into truck farming again, and will occupy his own property near Rocky Point, where he made such a success in former years. Friends will be glad to learn, however, that he will keep his family here.

O. K. Williams, for several years a resident of this city but now engaged in the newspaper business in Rock Hill, S. C., is here on a brief visit, and old friends are glad to welcome him again. They will also be glad to learn that he is prospering as publisher of The Rock Hill Record, a bright semi-weekly, which is the nearest approach to a daily in his city, with a population of about 12,000 inhabitants. The Sun acknowledges a fraternal call from Mr. Williams.

J. W. Sessions of Paradise, the efficient foreman of the big cypress mill of C. E. Dunham, was in the city Wednesday, having come to consult Dr. Alderman in regard to some dental work. Mr. Sessions states that the capacity of the mill is from 18,000 to 20,000 feet per day, but that it has been difficult to secure timber recently. Arrangements are now being made to haul timber from the Suwannee river, which will give the plant more material upon which to work.

From Saturday's Daily Sun.

J. P. Henry of Newberry was among those who spent yesterday in this city on business.

Mrs. Mary W. Evins and grandchildren of Evinston were among the visitors to this city yesterday.

M. J. Eddy and Chas. W. Wells, two well-known citizens of Alachua, were transacting business in this city yesterday.

A. M. Cushman left Thursday for Massachusetts, his former home, where he will spend the next few weeks on a well-deserved vacation.

R. F. Ormond and son, Irvin, of Hawthorn, were among those who spent Thursday in Gainesville. While here they made this office an agreeable call.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Matheson left Thursday for Indian Springs, Ga., where they expect to spend the next two or three weeks recuperating. Friends wish them a pleasant and beneficial sojourn.

Miss Louise Walker left yesterday for Dublin, Ga., where she will spend the next few days with relatives. She was accompanied as far as Jacksonville by Miss Irene McCreary, who will return home today.

Col. H. F. Dutton has returned from his old home, Townshend, Vt., where he spent the summer pleasantly. Mrs. Dutton will remain in Townshend for the next two or three weeks, when she will return home, and friends will be glad to welcome her.

T. J. Swearingen of Kanapaha was in the city yesterday. Friends of the Swearingen family will be pleased to learn that they have decided to remove to this city, after a residence of a year or more at Kanapaha, and they will be gladly welcomed again.

Mrs. P. H. Rolfs and children have returned from Miami, where they have been on a delightful visit to relatives and friends. Prof. Rolfs, who has been on an extended visit to California and other points in the West, is en route home, and is expected any day.

Mrs. G. M. D. Bowers has returned from Henning, Tenn., where she has been with relatives and friends for the past few months. Henning is the former home of the Bowers, and a visit to that town is always a mutually pleasant occurrence between members of the family and old friends.

P. M. Colson and family have removed into their elegant new home on West Liberty street, opposite the University of Florida grounds. The new residence contains about ten rooms, and is one of the handsomest and most modern in the city. It is provided with every modern convenience, including a screened room on the front which will be occupied by Mr. Colson.

Jesse I. Griffin of Jonesville, one of the most prominent planters in the county, was trading in the city yesterday. Mr. Griffin is still walking by the aid of crutches, the result of being thrown from a buggy in a runaway four years ago. His friends trust that he will eventually recover, and will be enabled to discard his crutches, which, however, have proved faithful friends.

Miss Annie DaCosta, for several years one of the efficient teachers in the Gainesville Graded and High School, has gone to Fort Myers, where she has accepted a position as first assistant in one of the best schools in Lee county. Miss DaCosta has many friends in this city, not only among the "grown-ups," but the young people with whom she has been associated by virtue of her position, and all regret very much to see her leave, but wish her much success in her new field.

L. W. Fennell, for many years the efficient sheriff of this county, but now residing on his farm at Hawthorn, left Thursday for his home, after a pleasant visit to his daughter, Mrs. Geo. S. Waldo, here. Mrs. Fennell, who accompanied him to Gainesville, will remain here for some time while Mr. Fennell will spend a few days at White Springs for the benefit of his health, which has been none too good for the past three months.

Friends will be glad to learn, however, that he is very much improved.

From Sunday's Daily Sun.
